THANK YOU

We want to thank all the people who donated 90 coats to help people in our community stay warm this winter. And speaking of being grateful, thanks to all who helped make Roll-O-Rama a HUGE success. We rolled and rocked and ate candy - doesn’t get any better than that!

BAPTISM SERVICE

All those who have signed up to be baptized, need to attend a meeting with our pastor this afternoon, at 12:30pm, by the fireplace. We will have the baptism service Sunday, November 26th, at 6:00pm, in the chapel.

SUNDAY EVENING AT GRACE

Tonight, we will look at a video from “The Sacred Echo” and discuss the many ways God declares His love for us. Feeling alone, forgotten, even abandoned by others or God? Come and be encouraged. After the video, we will enter prayer, standing in the gap for others, our church, the nation and the world. Join us at 6:00pm in the library.

NATIVITY SCENE SET UP AT KRUG PARK

If you are available to help with this project, please sign up at the information desk today. The Nativity display is a great way to present a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas to the thousands of lost people from our city and community who tour the park each holiday season. We invite you to come help make it happen!
